The Honorable Victoria Reznik
United States District Court
Southern District of New York
300 Quarropas Street
White Plains, New York 10601

Re: United States v. Doreen Mastroianni
Case No.: 7:24-mj-04187-UA-2

The requested bail modification is GRANTED.
Ms. Mastroianni's travel restrictions are modified to allow for travel in the Northern District of New York, with prior notice and approval of the United States Pretrial Services Office.

APPLICATION GRANTED

Hon. Victoria Reznik, U.S.M.J.
7/14/2025

Dear Judge Reznik:

The undersigned has been appointed to represent Ms. Doreen Mastroianni in the above-captioned matter. The defendant, Doreen Mastroianni, respectfully moves, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145(a)(2), to amend the conditions of her release. Ms. Mastroianni seeks a modification of her travel restrictions to include the Northern District of New York, with any travel to that district occurring only after providing notice and receiving the approval of the United States Pretrial Services Office.

United States Pretrial Services Officer Simon Krivoruk indicated to this office that Pretrial Services has no objection to Ms. Mastroianni's request. Assistant United States Attorney Ryan W. Allison indicated that the government has no objection to the requested modification.

Letter to Hon. Victoria Reznik

WHEREFORE, the defendant moves that the Court issue an Order extending the imposed travel restrictions to include the Northern District of New York, with prior notice and approval of the United States Pretrial Services Office.

Respectfully Submitted

THE DEFENDANT,
Doreen Mastroianni
